2012-13 MEDIA GUIDE

Dear Dallas Stars Media,

On behalf of the Dallas Stars, I'd like to personally thank you for all the coverage you have given our club the past 20 years and look forward to building a great relationship with you in the years to come.

This franchise has accomplished remarkable things since moving to Texas in 1993 – including winning seven division titles, two Presidents' Trophies and the 1999 Stanley Cup. We've been lucky to have great players like Mike Modano, Brett Hull, Joe Nieuwendyk, Ed Belfour, Sergei Zubov and Jere Lehtinen don the green and gold. The North Texas media has played a key role in covering these great teams and players, and in telling our story to the Metroplex.

Thanks to the franchise's solid foundation and storied past, and the bricks that were laid this offseason for our future, we are on our way toward the next great era of Dallas Stars hockey.

We are extremely excited about our roster heading into the season, with NHL legend Jaromir Jagr, the highly-decorated Ray Whitney and accomplished playmaker Derek Roy supplementing a returning young core of Loui Eriksson, Alex Goligoski and Kari Lehtonen. Our captain Brenden Morrow returns for his 13th season with the club, sniper Michael Ryder is coming off a career best season, and will be joined by talented new faces such as Cody Eakin and Aaron Rome.

No less profound, are the changes we've made to our team off the ice. We've overhauled the entire front office and are moving forward with some innovative projects to better serve our fans. Earlier this year, Bob Gainey, the architect of the 1999 Stanley Cup team re-joined the Stars. We've also added Mark Recchi to our front office, and made several changes to solidify the business operations.

We have left no stone unturned, and our commitment to excellence will not be questioned. The bottom line is that we're here to win and pursue championships.

There is something special happening here in Dallas, I can feel it. The final piece of this great comeback story belongs to you. We have great characters on this team, all with unique and humbling tales about their path to, and success in, the NHL, and we appreciate your support in telling those stories.

I am excited about working with all of you and am looking forward to your continued coverage of Dallas Stars hockey!

Go Stars!

Tom Gaglardi
Owner and Governor

MEDIA INFORMATION

STARSMEDIACENTRAL.COM:
For game notes, NHL stats, post game notes, Stargazing, media availability information and audio, visit StarsMediaCentral.com. Audio is posted every gameday after morning skate and post-game sessions. Members of the media may use this audio to assist with their publications or broadcast over their network.

PRESS CREDENTIALS:
Press Box seating is assigned for each game. Requests for Daily Passes will be issued on a priority basis to media on specific assignments only, and requests must be submitted in writing (e-mail or fax) on company letterhead no later than 5 p.m. the day before a home game. The fax number for the media relations department is 214-387-5564. The press entrance is located on the west side of American Airlines Center, and you must show identification when you pick up your passes. All media must visibly wear their credentials for all Stars' home games.

PARKING AT AMERICAN AIRLINES CENTER:
Media parking is available in Lot E on the west side of American Airlines Center.Please contact a member of the Dallas Stars Communications staff to be placed on the full-season parking list, or on the single game list.

INTERVIEWS:
The best time to conduct interviews on game-days is after the morning skate. All NHL locker rooms are closed for, at the most, five minutes after the game. The training room at the Dr Pepper Arena and American Airlines Center is closed to the media at all times. Any player (with the exception of goaltenders) may be pre-taped before a game as long as the interview is completed 95 minutes before game time.

Practices: The recommended time for media to interview Stars players is after practice. Unless a team meeting is called, the team locker room will be open no later than five minutes after the first player leaves the ice, or earlier if deemed by the Stars media relations department. Requests for interviews to be conducted at a location other than the StarCenter must be cleared through the Stars media relations department.

Broadcast and live shots: All player requests for that night's broadcast or live shots must be arranged prior to the end of the Stars' morning skate on the day of a game (11:30 a.m.). Players will not be available for broadcast or live shots after 6:00 p.m. for a 7:30 p.m. game or after 5:30 p.m. for a 7:00 p.m. game.

Head coach interviews: Stars Head Coach Glen Gulutzan will meet with the media after each game in the interview room across from the Stars' locker room.

DINING FACILITIES:
The Media Dining Room is located on the west side of the event level of American Airlines Center. Dining area admittance will be restricted to Stars game-night employees, working press and visiting officials. Kindly show your credentials to the attendant and sign in at the entrance.

TELEPHONE NUMBERS: The Stars' office number is 214-387-5500. To reach the media relations office, you may dial direct or e-mail:

OWNER & GOVERNOR

R. Thomas Gaglardi

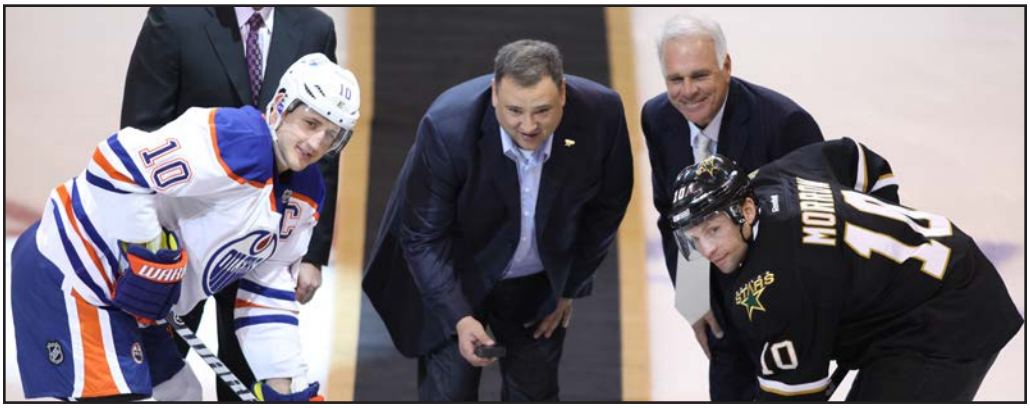
Tom Gaglardi brings Texas roots, a Canadian's love of the game, and a hockey player's passion to his ownership of the Dallas Stars. Gaglardi (pronounced Gah-lar-dee) was announced as the third owner of the Dallas franchise on November 21, 2011 at a news conference that included National Hockey League Commissioner Gary Bettman. Gaglardi told reporters that his mother is a native of Longview, Texas, and he has "live it-and-breathe it" University of Texas graduates and family members who reside in Burleson, Texas. For the record, Gaglardi has played hockey since he was five years old. The new Stars owner says his natural position early was as a center, but he has ceded that to "the younger, faster guys" and now is a right winger for his team, the Sandman Blazers.

"I have always admired the Dallas Stars franchise," said Gaglardi. "The last few years have been difficult on the franchise and the fans, but I do believe the team has a strong foundation and leadership, and there is no questioning the quality of the tradition. The next generation of Stars hockey will be defined by the entire organization's teamwork; we will all be pulling the same rope. No one will doubt our will and unwavering commitment to win."

Gaglardi is the President of Northland Properties Corporation, the largest family-owned hospitality company in Canada. He is described as a leader who truly knows his business inside and out having begun his career in the industry at age 13 in a busboy position; he has worked in virtually every area of the business since that time.

While in college at The University of British Columbia, Gaglardi worked in the Construction Division of the company, and at one point he was responsible for a crew of several dozen workers while still a teenager. Upon completion of his degree, he joined the business as a regional manager of its hotel group. At age 23, he was promoted to president of the hotel company, and at 26, he became president of Northland Properties Corporation, the Gaglardi family's umbrella company which now has grown to include:

Kamloops Blazers Hockey Club
Sandman Hotel Group
Sutton Place Hotel Company
Denny's Restaurants of Canada
Moxie's Classic Grill Group
Chop Steakhouse & Bar Group
Shark Club Bar & Grill Group
Rockford Restaurant Group
Revelstoke Mountain Resort
Northland Asset Management



Gaglardi has been described as relentless in his pursuit of his goal to have hotels and restaurants in every primary market in Canada. He is especially involved in the rapid development of new hotels and restaurants throughout Canada, and these efforts have been recently focused on Eastern Canada.

An active member of the community, Gaglardi founded The Sandman Harvest Foundation, which raises money for disadvantaged and medically challenged children living in the Okanagan Valley of British Columbia and as featured on the NHL Network; over $1,000,000 has been raised to date. He also serves as Trustee for the PA and JM Gaglardi Senior Citizens Society, a non-profit society providing housing for seniors in Kamloops, BC. Gaglardi also founded The Josh Dyck Foundation to assist 8-year-old Josh with his recovery from an auto accident in October, 2006, which left him paralyzed and confined to a wheelchair."Nothing is more important to me than family and giving back. I've been involved in our home communities my entire life," said Gaglardi. "My initial focus here in Dallas, however, will be in a supporting role for the team's professional management. That's my philosophy. Put the best people in place, help them create goals, support and assist them, and let them run the organization."

Gaglardi and his wife, Brittney, have three sons that all are competitive hockey players. In addition to his own participation on his hockey team, Gaglardi enjoys playing golf and spending time with his family at their cottage on the shores of Kamloops Lake near Savona, BC.

Joe Nieuwendyk

Joe Nieuwendyk enters his fourth season as general manager of the Dallas Stars. He was named the 10th general manager in Stars franchise history on May 31, 2009.

During his time with the Stars, Nieuwendyk has molded the team to fit his vision and has formed a young talented nucleus around goaltender Kari Lehtonen, defensemen Alex Goligoski and Trevor Daley, and forwards Loui Eriksson and Jamie Benn. In navigating the team through an ownership transition, Nieuwendyk also has the Stars primed for a bright future with a talented crop of prospects in the pipeline that are the envy of many NHL clubs.

The former Stars player returned to Dallas as general manager from the Toronto Maple Leafs, where he served as special assistant to the general manager in 2008-09. Prior to joining the Leafs and after his 2006 retirement, Nieuwendyk worked as a special consultant to the general manager with the Florida Panthers. As assistant general manager, he also helped lead Team Canada at the 2009 IIHF World Hockey Championship when the team won a silver medal.

A veteran of 20 seasons as a player in the National Hockey League, Nieuwendyk played seven with the Dallas Stars (1995-2002). He won the Stanley Cup for three different teams, in three different decades (Calgary in 1989, Dallas in 1999, New Jersey in 2003). Nieuwendyk was awarded the Conn Smythe Trophy as the Stanley Cup Playoffs most valuable player in 1999 when he led Dallas in post-season scoring on their way to winning the Stanley Cup.

The Whitby, Ontario, native played in 1,257 career NHL games (which ranks 68th all-time) for five different teams (Calgary 1986-95, Dallas 1995-2002, New Jersey 2002-03, Toronto 2003-04, and Florida 2005-07). Nieuwendyk scored 564 goals (21st all-time) and added 562 assists (89th all-time) for 1,126 points (52nd overall). He scored 51 goals in his rookie season in Calgary, which ranked second at the time for most-ever goals scored by a rookie in one season (that mark now ranks fourth). Nieuwendyk won the Calder Trophy for rookie-of-the-year that season. He achieved two 50-goal seasons, two 40-goal seasons and four 30-goal seasons during his playing career.

No stranger to the international stage, Nieuwendyk skated with the Canadian National Team on five separate occasions. He won a silver medal in his first foray with Canada at the 1986 World Junior Championships where he earned the fourth-most points in the tournament with five goals and seven assists in seven contests. He also represented Canada at the 1998 Winter Olympics (2 goals, 3 assists), and helped the country win its first gold medal in half a century at the 2002 Games in Salt Lake City (1 goal, 1 assist).

A 2011 Hockey Hall of Fame inductee, Nieuwendyk was a four-time NHL All-Star and appeared in 158 career playoff games, recording 116 points on 66 goals and 50 assists. He played in 442 games for Dallas, scoring 178 goals and 162 assists for 340 points.

Nieuwendyk played three seasons at Cornell and was a Hobey Baker Award finalist in 1986-87 for outstanding collegiate player of the year. He was drafted by Calgary in the second round (27th overall) of the 1985 NHL Entry Draft.

Nieuwendyk and his wife Tina have three children, Kaycee, Tyra and Jackson. The family resides in Dallas.

Les Jackson

Assistant General Manager, Scouting and Development

Les Jackson enters his 25th season with the Stars, dating back to the club's days in Minnesota. His role consists of managing and overseeing the club's scouting program, as well as monitoring the development of all amateur and professional prospects.

Jackson, 59, is widely respected as one of the best talent evaluators in hockey, having helped build the Stars into the consistently competitive hockey club that it has become over the last two decades. Learning from the tutelage of respected general managers such as Bob Clarke, Bob Gainey and Lou Nanne, Jackson also assisted in the evaluation of players as it related to movement within the organization, including the entry draft, trades and free agent signings. During Jackson's tenure, the Stars have selected future NHL stars such as Mike Modano, Derian Hatcher, Jere Lehtinen, Jarome Iginla, Marty Turco, Brenden Morrow, Jamie Benn, and Loui Eriksson among others.

Jackson, a native of Manning, Alberta, was drafted by the Boston Bruins in 1972 and played two seasons in the minors prior to his career as a hockey executive. His minor professional coaching career included stints in Billings and Great Falls, Montana; Tucson, Arizona; and New Westminster and Revelstoke, British Columbia. He also spent five years as assistant coach and general manager of the Western Hockey League's Brandon Wheat Kings.

Frank Provenzano

Assistant General Manager

Frank Provenzano begins his seventh season as assistant general manager for the Stars. Provenzano assists General Manager Joe Nieuwendyk in all facets of the day-to-day operations of the hockey department, with his main responsibilities including contract negotiations, salary cap management, schedule making and the administration of the NHL's Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Previously, Provenzano served as assistant general manager for the Washington Capitals from 1997 to 2004, and was an assistant in the Vancouver Canucks' hockey operations department from 1994 through 1997. The native of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., worked as a commentator specializing in salary cap analysis for TSN, a sports network in Canada, during the 2005-06 season.

Provenzano, 43, played varsity hockey at Queens University in Kingston, Ont., and graduated in 1991 with dual bachelor's degrees in physical and health education and physiology/anatomy. He then obtained his masters degree in business administration from Simon Fraser University in Burnaby, B.C., during which time he was selected to participate in the International Business Exchange program at the Manchester School of Business in Manchester, England. In his spare time, Provenzano practices the stick fighting martial art of Juego del Palo, where he has attained Grand Master status in the Quintero style. He and his wife, Julie, reside in Dallas.

Bob Gainey

Senior Advisor, Hockey Operations

Bob Gainey returns for his second stint with the Stars' organization after spending the previous seven years as a member of the Montreal Canadiens organization. Gainey was the Stars' head coach from 1990-1996, and served as General Manager of the team from 1992-2002. Gainey was truly the architect in leading the Stars franchise to seven playoff berths, five consecutive division titles, two Stanley Cup Finals appearances, and of course, the 1999 Stanley Cup championship.

A native of Peterborough, Ontario, Gainey most recently worked in the Montreal Canadiens organization, serving in a variety of capacities, including general manager of the club from 2003-2010. He served as the Habs' interim head coach on two occasions and was most recently a special advisor to the general manager. In his time with the Canadiens, he helped lead the team to playoff berths in four of five seasons as GM, including the 2007-08 season when Montreal ended the regular season with the Eastern Conference's best record.

A 1992 inductee into the Hockey Hall of Fame, Gainey won five Stanley Cups as a player, an NHL-record four Selke Trophies as the league's best defensive forward, as well as the Conn Smythe Trophy as the Most Valuable Player of the 1978 Playoffs. In 1,160 career regular season NHL games, all with the Montreal Canadiens, Gainey amassed 239 goals and 262 assists for 501 points. He added 73 points (25 goals, 48 points) in 182 career Stanley Playoff contests.

Mark Janko

Director, Hockey Analytics and Administration

Mark Janko begins his 13th season with the Dallas Stars organization, and fourth in Hockey Operations. He spent eight seasons in the Stars Public Relations Department, most recently as director of public relations from 2005-2008. His current job duties include assisting the Hockey Ops department in the areas of player development, cap management, contract negotiations and research, salary arbitration, strategic planning and works closely with Dallas' scouting staff, with an emphasis on the professional level. He also serves as the team's liaison for all player transactions with NHL's Central Registry.

Janko, 36, served as the director of communications for FC Dallas in Major League Soccer for the 2005 MLS season. He joined the Stars in 1999 after serving in the media relations department for the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim during the 1998-99 season. A 1998 graduate of the University of California at Santa Barbara with a degree in communications, Janko is a native of Mission Viejo, California. He and his wife, Jessica, their daughter, Reese, and their son, Carson, reside in Lewisville.

Glen Gulutzan

Head Coach

Glen Gulutzan is entering his second season with the Dallas Stars after being named the 21st head coach in Stars franchise history on June 17, 2011. In his first season as Dallas' bench-boss, Gulutzan guided the club to a 42-35-5 record, his seventh consecutive winning season coaching professional hockey.

Prior to his coaching tenure in Dallas, Gulutzan spent two seasons as the head coach of the Texas Stars, Dallas' primary development affiliate in the American Hockey League (AHL), where he led Texas to the AHL Playoffs both seasons including an appearance at the Calder Cup Finals in the franchise's inaugural season of 2009-10.

Gulutzan, 41, served as general manager and head coach for the Las Vegas Wranglers of the ECHL from 2003 to 2009. He complied a record of 254-124-55 (.650 points percentage) and collected 100-plus points in three consecutive seasons from 2005 to 2008, a first for any team in the 21-year history of the ECHL. Gulutzan took the Wranglers to the Kelly Cup Finals in 2008 and to the Conference Finals in 2009.

In 2005-06, Gulutzan was recognized as the ECHL Coach of the Year. He led Las Vegas to the playoffs in five of six seasons, including their expansion season (2003-04) when the team went 43-22-7 for 93 points. In addition, he was selected to coach in the ECHL All-Star Game three times. He led the Wranglers to the division crown in back-to-back seasons in 2006-07 and 2007-08. Gulutzan has missed the playoffs in only one season as a head coach and holds a perfect 5-0 record in game sevens in the playoffs.

Before beginning his coaching career, Gulutzan played professionally in Finland and Sweden before joining the Fresno Falcons of the West Coast Hockey League in 1996-97, setting a team record with 80 assists and 110 points in 60 games. He spent a total of six seasons with Fresno, including the last four as player-assistant coach from 1999-2003. Gulutzan also played in the International Hockey League with Utah and Las Vegas.

In 1996, he earned a Bachelor's degree in Education from the University of Saskatchewan. Gulutzan graduated with a major in Kinesiology and minor in Mathematics. Gulutzan and his wife, Nicole, have four children - son, Landen, and daughters, Emma, Brielle and Grace, and reside in Frisco.

Glen and his wife, Nicole, have four children - son, Landen, and daughters, Emma, Brielle and Grace.

James R. Lites

President and Chief Executive Officer

Dallas Stars owner Tom Gaglardi appointed Jim Lites President and CEO of the Stars on November 18, 2011. Lites is very familiar with the position having held it twice previously under prior owners Norm Green and Tom Hicks.

Lites returns to the Stars with a reputation as one the finest administrators in professional sports. He is responsible for all aspects of the Dallas Stars hockey and business operations and reports directly to Mr. Gaglardi. Lites also returns as an Alternate Governor on the NHL's Board of Governors, a role he held from 1982-2007. Over the years Lites has served on the Board's marketing, broadcasting, expansion and game committees.

Over the course of Lites' two prior stints with the Stars (1993-2002; 2003-2007), the team won seven Division Championships, two Western Conference Championships, two Presidents' Trophies, and the 1999 Stanley Cup. He played an active role in the conception, design and construction of American Airlines Center and the construction of the Dr Pepper StarCenter ice facilities.

From 1999-2002, Lites also served as president of MLB's Texas Rangers, becoming one of only four executives to simultaneously manage the affairs of two major league franchises. He served three years on MLB's Executive Council and was President when the Rangers captured the 1999 AL West Championship.

Prior to joining the Stars in 1993, Lites served 11 years as Chief Operating Officer of the Detroit Red Wings, who during his stint won three Norris Division Championships and two Norris Division Playoff Championships after having missed the playoffs in 10 of the 11 seasons before his hiring. During his tenure, the Red Wings were named by Financial World magazine as the most valuable franchise in the NHL in 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1993. Lites was also instrumental in the defection of former Soviet stars Sergei Fedorov, Vyacheslav Kozlov and Vladimir Konstantinov, each of whom played important parts of the Red Wings' record-setting and Stanley Cup champion hockey clubs.

While with Detroit, Lites also served as Chief Operating Officer of Olympia Arenas, Inc., one of the Midwest's largest facility management companies. He was also responsible for the redevelopment of Detroit's historic Fox Theatre, now the most successful entertainment venue of its type in the United States and the cornerstone of Detroit's growing northside sports, entertainment and gaming complexes.

From 2007 until being rehired by the Stars this fall, Lites managed the New York Football Giants' Personal Seat licence program at its new stadium in East Rutherford, New Jersey. In addition, he has been a consultant to, and a member of the Board of Directors of, Worldplay Networks, a highly successful technology company headquartered in Calgary.

Born and raised in Pentwater, Michigan, Lites received a bachelor of arts degree with highest honors from the University of Michigan in 1975 and graduated cum laude from Wayne State (MI) University Law School in 1978. He specialized in litigation and labor contract negotiations when he practiced law.

Jim and his wife Kim reside in Frisco. They have four children, son Chase, a member of the Stars business staff, daughter Brooke, an attorney in Detroit, son Sam, a scout for the Detroit Red Wings, and son Chandler, a student at Southern Methodist University.

Jason Farris

Executive Vice President, Business Operations and Development

Jason Farris joined the Dallas Stars in January 2012 as executive vice president of operations and development. A native of Vancouver, Farris brings a depth of business expertise and passion for hockey to the Stars. He holds a certification as a Hockey Canada level II official, having refereed and lined hundreds of minor hockey games. He continues to play in recreational leagues as a centerman and right winger.

Most recently, Farris served as President and CEO of Citizens Bank of Canada, one of 21 Schedule I banks in Canada. Previously, he served 10 years in the finance software industry at Fincentric Corporation, MacDonald Dettwiler & Associates, Motorola MDI and Avid Technology. A multi-dimensional professional, Farris also founded a publishing and digital media company, CircaNow Media. Through CircaNow, Farris published the following Behind the Moves: NHL General Managers Tell how Winners are Built which has been hailed as "the most important hockey book in over a decade;" Hockey Play-by-Play: Canuck Captains with Jim Robson; Hail Cesare: Trail through the NHL. In addition to hockey, he has maintained his life-long passion for music. He studied classical violin at the Vancouver Academy of Music. This experience inspired the production of his short film, Chaconne in G minor: composta da Vitali? that aired in Canada on Bravo! TV and throughout Europe on ClassicFM TV.

Farris holds a Master of Science in Management from MIT Sloan School of Management in Cambridge, Massachusetts. He also holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from the University of Toronto and a Bachelor of Science in Physics from the University of British Columbia in Vancouver. He has been a member of the Society for International Hockey Research (www.sihrhockey.org) since 1995 and is a contributor to Total NHL and to the annual NHL Official Guide and Record Book.

Jason and his wife Sarah have two children, Jane and Owen and now reside in Dallas.

Mike McCall

Executive Vice President, Chief Marketing Officer

Mike McCall joined the Dallas Stars management team alongside President Jim Lites in November 2011. He oversees the sales and marketing efforts of the Dallas Stars including ticket sales, marketing and advertising. He will be involved in all aspects of strategic planning for the Stars.

McCall's background includes over 20 years of sales, marketing and management in the professional sports and entertainment industry. He served as the Vice President of Sales and Marketing for the New Jersey Devils of the National Hockey League and was a part of the 1995 Stanley Cup Championship. He also served as the President/Commissioner of the West Coast Hockey League from 1997-2001 before moving to Frisco, Tex., where he helped found the Frisco RoughRiders professional baseball team.

As President and General Manager of the RoughRiders and Dr Pepper Ballpark, McCall led the most successful AA Baseball organization in the country and helped grow the footprint of Texas Rangers baseball in North Texas. Over the past few years, McCall has also represented the Frisco Independent School District, working in conjunction with the Dallas Stars on the $36M renovation to Dr Pepper Arena in Frisco, and spearheaded the acquisition of Resistol Arena and the Mesquite Rodeo in 2009. McCall also had stints in both the International Hockey League and the Western Hockey League (Tri-City Americans) where he managed former player and current hockey operations consultant, Stu Barnes.

McCall and his wife, Ann, live in Frisco, Tex. and have one daughter and one son. Casey, is captain of the Texas Tech soccer team and is preparing for a career in marketing and design. Greg, is a student-athlete at UT Arlington and is the catcher on the baseball team.

Brad Alberts

Executive Vice President, Corporate Partnerships

Brad Alberts rejoined the Dallas Stars management team in February of 2012. He oversees the corporate sponsorship, broadcast, and in-game entertainment teams. He will also be instrumental in all aspects of strategic planning for the Stars.

Alberts' background includes over 15 years of professional sports experience selling tickets, suite and premium seats, and sponsorship sales. He previously served as Executive Vice President for the Dallas Stars and Texas Rangers heading the sponsorship sales efforts for both organizations. Most recently he served as Vice President of Strategic Partnerships with Legends Sales & Marketing a company owned by the Dallas Cowboys and New York Yankees.

Over Alberts' 10 years in various sponsorship roles he has been instrumental in making American Airlines Center one of the top ranked revenue buildings in the NHL and NBA. He was a part of the team that sold the naming rights deal to Ameriquest Mortgage Company for the Texas Rangers Ballpark, and was instrumental in making the Dallas Stars one of the top ranked revenue organizations in the NHL.

Alberts received his bachelor's degree in History from Ripon College in 1992, where he was a four year lettermen and co-captain of the basketball team. He received his Master's Degree in Sports Administration from the University of Northern Colorado in 1995. Alberts is active in the non-profit community and resides with his wife, Kate, and their daughter, Grace, in Southlake.

Jason Walsh

Vice President, Production and Entertainment

AMERICAN AIRLINES CENTER

Since opening in July 2001, the American Airlines Center has set a new standard for sports and entertainment and has become the premier venue of the South. It's grand complex with sweeping vistas and inviting passages comprise five concourses, 142 luxury suites, two 50 person suites and room for 18,532 hockey fans.

Designed by world-renowned architect David M. Schwarz and Dallas based HKS, Inc., the American Airlines Center is a combination of traditional architecture and hi-tech wizardry. Outside, the signature arches are warm and inviting; inside, the retractable seating brings the bowl in closer to the action, allowing fans a more intimate experience and exceptional sight lines.

American Airlines Center has been repeatedly nominated for "Arena of the Year" by leading concert industry publications, Pollstar, and consistently ranks in the top ten in the US for Year End Ticket Sales.

American Airlines Center first opened its doors on July 28, 2001, when The Eagles took the stage in front of a sold out crowd. In addition to The Eagles, some of the world's most legendary performers have appeared at American Airlines Center including Coldplay, U2, The Rolling Stones, Billy Joel, Elton John, Rod Stewart, George Strait, Cher, Tom Petty, Bruce Springsteen, Maná, and Paul McCartney.

The American Airlines Center has been no stranger to major sporting events. In addition to the Dallas Stars and Dallas Mavericks, the Center hosted the 2002 & 2006 NCAA 1st and 2nd Round Men's Basketball Tournaments, The Phillips 66 2003, 2004, & 2006 Men's Big 12 Basketball Tournaments, 2009 U.SA. Gymnastics Visa Championships and other events such as Boxing and Ultimate Fighting Championships. The Center was a proud host of the 2007 NHL All-Star Game, 2006 and 2011 NBA Finals and hosted events during the 2010 NBA All-Star Weekend.

American Airlines Center was designed to keep hockey ice in perfect condition even when the Texas heat blazes outside. To maintain a constant temperature of 64-68 degrees, the building has a separate chiller system just for the slab, eight miles of one-inch pipe and 320 tons of refrigeration. In addition, a 3,600-ton air-conditioning system and a dehumidification system extract 500 gallons of moisture per hour during the season. The ice is put into place each September and takes 24 hours to build up to the 1-inch depth the players are accustomed to. The ice stays in the Center until the playoffs are complete and is covered up during the season with a special material called Ice Deck, a fiberglass product that keeps the ice cold and allows the air temperature above to rise without affecting the ice. The Zamboni is retrofitted with a Fast Ice system, the latest technology that allows the ice maintenance crew to cut the ice quickly in order to keep the ice smooth and fast.

Thanks to the most sophisticated retractable seating system ever designed for a sports and entertainment venue, the conversion between basketball and hockey is record setting. The patented design allows conversion from an ice rink to a basketball court or concert setting in less than two hours.

Regarded as one of the most technologically advanced arenas, American Airlines Center premiered a one-of-a-kind sight and sound system in the 2009-2010 hockey and basketball season.

During the summer months of 2009, American Airlines Center installed the first 1080 high-definition center scoreboard in the NBA and NHL. Digital video throughout the arena bowl increased by over 300 percent with the addition of a new high-definition center scoreboard and two stadium-sized video displays that dominate the upper end walls. Matching the spectacular HD video experience is a state-of-the-art concert quality sound system. The digital six speaker linear system delivers audio effects that the American Airlines Center visitor can both feel and hear.

VICTORY PARK

Anchoring the 72-acre Victory Park development, American Airlines Center serves as the backdrop to Dallas' most vibrant urban gathering space. Built on land that was once home to an old city dump, a meat packing plant and an old power plant, Victory Park is the largest Environmental Protection Agency brownfield project in the United States.

Only steps away from jogging trails like the Katy Trail and green spaces. Victory Park is in the heart of the "new Dallas" – an area on the west side of downtown experiencing tremendous growth and offering unprecedented promise for the future. More than $6.5 billion in new construction is now under development in Victory Park and the area surrounding it, from the gorgeous Calatrava Bridges to the Arts District and Woodall Rodgers Park to the Perot Museum of Nature and Science.

The Victory Park neighborhood is the crossroads for nearby urban districts, from Uptown to the Design District to the Central Business District and steps away from the DART commuter rail station and the Trinity Railway Express connecting Victory Park to Dallas, Fort Worth and beyond.

Today, Victory Park is one of the "greenest" developments in the country. More than 1,000 trees have been planted in the neighborhood and all of the electricity in Victory Park is purchased from providers generating 100% renewable energy.

DR PEPPER ARENA

The Dallas Stars Organization opened the Dr Pepper Arena in Frisco, TX, in June 2009, and it has become the premiere entertainment venue in Collin County.

Formerly known as the Deja Blue Arena at the Dr Pepper StarCenter, the facility underwent a major renovation through a partnership between the Dallas Stars, the City of Frisco and the Frisco ISD. The original facility opened in 2003; Dr Pepper Arena now serves as the name of the entire complex.

Most of the renovation took place on the arena side of the complex, which began in the summer of 2008. Dr Pepper Arena's capacity went from 3,500 to just over 6,000. Additions to the arena included a 1,000-space parking garage, extensive kitchen/catering capabilities, 12 luxury suites and a VIP club.

Dr Pepper Arena opened June 1, 2009 and featured many entertaining guests and shows in its first year, including Bill Cosby, Cirque Du Soleil, Hillsong United, Championship Boxing, Steele Cage Mixed Martial Arts and the Harlem Globetrotters. The facility will continue to showcase great entertainment as well as sports in Collin County.
Dr Pepper Arena is also the home of the Texas Tornado hockey team of the North American Hockey League (NAHL). The Tornado, now entering its 13th year, has won five league titles in its history.

"Dr Pepper Arena has been very successful since its expansion was completed," said Jason Farris, executive vice president of business operations for the Dallas Stars. "It is the premiere entertainment venue in Collin County and the Frisco area. We look forward to many more great events coming to Dr Pepper Arena."
Dr Pepper has been a strong partner of the Dallas Stars since the hockey club came to North Texas in 1993.

"We are very proud of our longstanding relationship with the Dallas Stars through our sponsorship of the team and our continued involvement with Dr Pepper StarCenters throughout the Metroplex," said Jim Trebilcock, executive vice president and chief marketing officer for Dr Pepper Snapple Group, based in Plano. "Dr Pepper Arena brings that relationship to a new level, providing a state-of-the-art sports and entertainment venue for the Frisco community and in the process gives the Dr Pepper brand even more visibility here in our home market."

"We've been very happy with the Dr Pepper Arena over the past few years," said Frisco Mayor Maher Maso. "The expansion project has transformed the arena into a well-balanced venue with greater capabilities to host events for everyone. Our residents and visitors enjoy more entertainment opportunities and our city benefits economically from the arena's enhanced ability to host a wide variety of events."

Since moving to North Texas, the Dallas Stars have made it an organizational priority to expose the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex to hockey and have done so by constructing and operating several Dr Pepper StarCenters throughout the area.

In 2003, the Stars moved their corporate offices and team practice facility from Valley Ranch to the Dr Pepper Arena in Frisco, and followed in 2004 with the Dr Pepper StarCenter and Conference Center in Farmers Branch. Construction on a new StarCenter started April 2008 and opened September 2009 at Craig Ranch in McKinney. Including the Dr Pepper StarCenter in McKinney, the total number of Metroplex facilities is now six with 12 sheets of ice.

The Frisco facility serves as the training site for the Dallas Stars. The 211,000 square-foot facility includes more than 15,000 square feet for the team's locker room, workout and rehabilitation area, and another 25,000 square feet of business offices for the Dallas Stars. It also includes two NHL-size sheets of ice, eight team locker rooms and a 3,500 square-foot StarStuff store.

The flagship facility in Frisco was renovated to become the Dr Pepper Arena on June 1, 2009. Dr Pepper Arena is also the home of the Texas Tornado hockey team of the North American Hockey League (NAHL), and the Texas Legends (NBADL)

"One of the first steps in building a successful, competitive franchise is making sure they have the best training facility available," said Stars Executive Vice President of Business Operations and Development Jason Farris. "The Stars have achieved that goal in Frisco, and we hope that the quality of the facility will help lure potential players in the future."

The Dallas Stars are one of the few teams in the NHL to design and build their own practice facility and arena. The team also sets the pace in the NHL among clubs that form partnerships with communities to create public skating facilities, a trend which is picking up momentum around the league. The facility in Farmers Branch was built in partnership with that city, as was the facility in Euless. The Stars also have facilities in Irving and Plano. The Dr Pepper StarCenter Plano re-opened on June 23, 2012 after undergoing extensive renovations.

The Stars have come a long way since moving to town nearly 20 years ago. When the team first set foot in Texas, there were five total sheets of ice in the area (two of which were at shopping malls and didn't host hockey). There were no high school or traveling hockey teams, only 250 local children playing the sport and only 225 adults playing in recreational leagues.

Today, there are more than 8,000 North Texas kids and adults playing recreational hockey on 24 sheets of ice in the area, including about 55 high school hockey teams.

With all the success the Stars have had growing the sport, it's no surprise that the Lone Star State is beginning to produce world-class hockey talent. Since 2005, 12 native Texans have been drafted into the National Hockey League, including seven who hail directly from the area (Dallas, Plano, Coppell, Arlington, Lewisville). Nine of those players have been selected since 2008, making Texas a top-10 producer of American NHL draftees in that span. In total, 14 players from Texas have been selected since the Stars moved to the state in 1993.

The Dallas Stars have also played a crucial role in the development of the Dallas Stars Travel Hockey League (DSTHL), a youth travel hockey league dedicated to the continued development of amateur hockey players across Texas.

The league was initiated to lower the costs for first-time players and streamline travel programs in the area to increase competitiveness and development at the elite levels.

The 12-team travel league began play in the fall of 2012.

FOUNDATION MISSION STATEMENT: The Dallas Stars Foundation was established to serve as a positive force throughout the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex. The Foundation focuses its efforts on providing support to the children of the community so they may lead quality lives and develop into contributing members of society. Through teamwork, interaction, and education, the Dallas Stars Foundation works to bring together all members of the Metroplex and build a bright future for today's youth.

In its continuing commitment to the community, the Stars organization established the Dallas Stars Foundation, the official charity of the Dallas Stars' management and play¬ers. The Dallas Stars realize that professional sports teams have a tremendous social and economic impact on their cities and states, and a team's athletes are called upon to pro¬vide leadership, inspiration and support for their community. With this in mind, the Dallas Stars Foundation was created to help maximize the Stars' presence in the community and to assist various non-profit organizations, particularly children's charities, through philan¬thropic grants and program implementation.

2011-2012 Charitable Grants: The Dallas Stars Foundation's most rewarding activity is being able to make a positive difference in children's lives and provide them life-impacting opportunities they would otherwise not have. One of the most effective ways of accomplishing this is through its annual contribution of monetary grants to various local children's charities. The Foundation has awarded close to $4 million to local children's charities since 1998. This season the Foundation awarded $211,350 to 21 very deserving Metroplex organizations listed below.

In the community:
Hockey Fights Cancer: During the annual Hockey Fights Cancer night the Dallas Stars recognized and raised money for several charitable organizations for their efforts in cancer research - Pancreatic Cancer Action Network, Mary Crowley Cancer Research Centers, Susan G. Komen for the Cure, and Leukemia & Lymphoma Society.
The Dallas Stars Foundation raised just under $10,000 through a silent auction consisting of lavender wrapped sticks the team used during warm-ups, ticket sales, and collections at the door by the Dallas Stars Wives and girlfriends.

Children's Medical Center Hospital Visits: The Dallas Stars had their annual visit to the Children's Medical Center Dallas on December 6, 2011. The team split up into several groups to visit different playrooms in the hospital. The players passed out autographed player cards and participated in several different activities including coloring, video games, Guess Who and Foosball. Players also made visits to individual patient rooms for those that weren't well enough to make it to the playrooms. Several of the players donned gloves, masks and hospital robes in order to visit the patients in restricted rooms, making sure no one was left out. The patients were so happy to see the Dallas Stars that one patient asked for a hug from each player that came to visit him.
Educational Programs

STICK WITH READING: The Dallas Stars Foundation established this cornerstone literacy program in 1998 to encourage kids to develop the habit of reading in their leisure time. Students record their extracurricular reading over an eight-week period for the chance to win great Stars incentive prizes. With the help of Dallas Stars Forward Steve Ott, who serves as the program's spokesman, the Stick with Reading program has reached hundreds of thousands of kids across North Texas. With over 25,000 registered participants during the 2011-2012 season, Stick with Reading continues to be one of the most successful reading programs in the league.

HIGH SCHOOL MEDIA DAY: This annual event allows high school journalism and broadcasting students the opportunity to get a behind the scenes look at the professional sports media industry. Participating students watch a Dallas Stars practice session and then attend a question and answer session featuring Dallas Stars players, professional broadcasters, and local media personalities. Each student is encouraged to write an article or create a two minute video on the experience for his/her school newspaper or newscast. The winners will sit in the AAC press box during a Dallas Stars home game and also have the winning article and video posted on the Dallas Stars website.

‘THE UNCERTAINTY IS NOW OVER’

Tom Gaglardi Purchases Dallas Stars

“We’re here to win. This isn’t about anything other than becoming a great team and pursuing championships.” - Tom Gaglardi

On Nov. 18, 2011 the Dallas Stars, in conjunction with the National Hockey League, announced the successful transfer of ownership of the club to Vancouver businessman Tom Gaglardi (pronounced guh-lar-dee). Gaglardi became the third owner in Dallas Stars history, and the sixth overall in franchise history. Other facts are listed below:

* He is the President of Northland Properties, the largest family-owned hospitality company in Canada.
* Mr. Gaglardi also has an ownership stake with the Kamloops Blazer’s Hockey Club.
* Has family members that reside in Burleson, Texas - his mother is a native of Longview, Texas.
* Gaglardi has played hockey since he was five-year-old.

A TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

The Dallas Stars earned their 15th consecutive winning season (record above .500) in 2011-12. Only the Detroit Red Wings (20) have an active streak of consecutive winning seasons that is longer than the Stars. The team also has won 30-or-more games each season during that streak

Longest Active Consecutive Winning Seasons, NHL

1. Detroit Red Wings: 20 seasons (since 1991-92)
2. Dallas Stars: 15 seasons (since 1996-97)
3. Vancouver Canucks: 12 seasons (since 1999-00)

Longest Active Consecutive 30-Win Seasons, NHL

1. Detroit Red Wings: 21 straight (since 1990-91)
2. Colorado Avalanche: 19 straight (since 1992-93)
3. New Jersey Devils: 16 straight (since 1996-96)

T3. Toronto Maple Leafs: 16 straight (since 1995-96)

5. Dallas Stars: 15 straight (since 1996-97)

STARS JOIN 1,500 WIN CLUB

The Stars won their 1,500th all-time game on Friday, Feb. 24, 2012 against the Minnesota Wild. They concluded 2011-12 with 1,510 all-time victories. Below are some notable stats about their success:

* The Stars are the 10th franchise in the history of the NHL to win 1,500 games, as well as the only club to reach that many victories in two different cities (Minneapolis, Dallas).
* Dallas enters the season six victories shy of equaling their win total as the North Stars.

Winning Big, Deep In The Heart of Texas

758 victories in 26 seasons as Minnesota North Stars

752 victories in 18 seasons as Dallas Stars

RYDING OFF INTO STARS HISTORY

Michael Ryder led all Dallas Stars with 35 goals in 2011-12. He became the second Dallas Star and seventh overall player in franchise history to score over 30 goals in his first season of play for the club. The last Star to score over 30 in their first season was Brett Hull, who scored 32 goals in 1998 with Dallas:

30+ Goals In First Season With Stars, Franchise

36	Russ Courtnall 1992
35	Wayne Connelly 1967	Brian Bellows 1982	Michael Ryder 2012
34	Danny Grant 1968
32	Brian MacLellan 1986	Brett Hull 1998

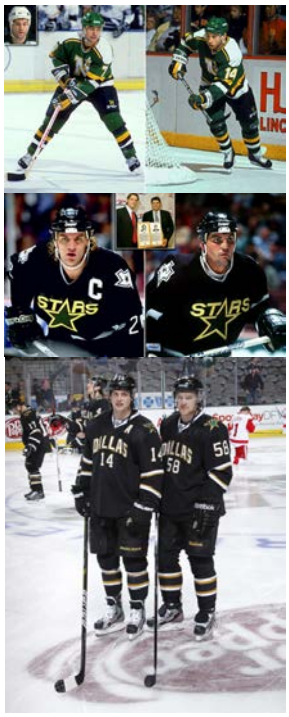
Michael Ryder and Brett Hull are the only two players in Dallas Stars history to score over 30 goals in their first season with the team



BROTHERS IN ARMS

Jamie Benn and older brother Jordie Benn became the sixth set of brothers in team history and the third in Dallas Stars history to skate on the same team for an NHL game.

4. Jon Casey (1989-90): 1,574 saves
5. Don Beaupre (1985-86): 1,508 saves

LARSEN SCORES GOAL, MAKES HISTORY

Philip Larsen scored his first career NHL goal on Saturday, Jan. 21 against the Minnesota Wild. In doing so, he became the seventh player born in Denmark to score an NHL goal and the first Danish-born defenseman to score a goal since Poul Popiel scored for the Vancouver Canucks during the 1971-72 season. Larsen is also the fifth different Dallas defenseman to earn a goal for the Stars this season.

NO ORDINARY JOE

Joe Nieuwendyk is the 32nd general manager in NHL history and the eighth active GM to guide his team to a winning season in his first three full seasons. 68% of the other 31 GMs eventually guided their team to the Stanley Cup Finals (stats since NHL assumed control of the Stanley Cup in 1927-28) (Source: www.nhlgms.com)

BENN THERE DONE THAT

Benn earned a career-high in goals (26), assists (37) and points (63) last season despite being sidelined for 11 games with injuries.

He was selected to his first NHL All-Star Game last season and won the accuracy shooting competition.

Benn became the only player in Dallas Stars history to register 100 points before his 23rd birthday.

"I think he's one of the finest young players in the league that nobody knows about. If this kid was in Toronto, they'd be making statues of him."
-Anaheim Ducks Head Coach Bruce Boudreau on Jamie Benn

ABOUT RICHARD

Richard Bachman (RIH-chuhrd BAWK-mahn) is entering his second NHL season and his fourth in professional hockey. Although relatively new to the NHL ranks, Bachman has a reputation as a goaltender who has succeeded at every level of hockey. In his freshman season at Colorado College, he was selected as the WCHA Rookie of the Year. He was later a runner-up as Goalie of the Year in his first professional season with the ECHL's Idaho Steelheads. As a member of the Dallas Stars, he became the first rookie goaltender in Dallas history to start seven consecutive games and the first to win his first three NHL starts. He also shutout the New York Rangers at Madison Square Garden, becoming the first Stars goaltender to do so since Gump Worsley in 1972. Bachman is the only Utah-born goaltender in NHL history and one of only four players overall to hail from the state.

ABOUT JAMIE

Jamie Benn (JAY-mee BEHN) is entering his fourth season in the NHL, all with Dallas. At 23 years-of-age, Benn has already played over 200 NHL games, earning over 150 points in that span. Last season he became the first player in Dallas Stars history to register 100 career points before the age of 23. He was also selected to participate in his first NHL All-Star Game, where he took home the accuracy shooting title during the Skills Competition. Benn enters 2012-13 having increased his point totals in each of his first three seasons, having earned 41, 56 and 63 points respectively. He also enters the season with the fourth-most career goals (70) among 2007 draft picks (Kane,126; Gagner, 77; Perron, 74 others).

ABOUT MATT

Matt Fraser (MAT FRAY-zuhr) is entering his first NHL season, after playing one game for Dallas in 2011-12. Fraser had a breakout season in his first campaign as a professional in Austin with Dallas' AHL affiliate, the Texas Stars. With Texas, Fraser led the team with 37 goals and ranked second in the entire AHL in that category. He also ranked second on the team in overall points (55), good for sixth in the league. Like Brenden Dillon and Ryan Garbutt, Fraser went undrafted and was signed by Dallas as a free agent after a successful stint in the WHL. In the WHL, his best season came in 2010-11 when he posted 74 points. That same season, he led his team to a WHL championship crown after leading the league in playoff goals (17). Other notable achievements include his selection as the WHL Humanitarian of the Year in 2010, as well as a selection to the AHL All-Star Game in 2012.

2011-12 SEASON

Center

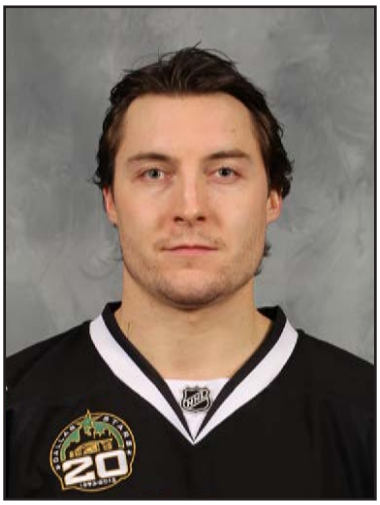
ABOUT RYAN

Ryan Garbutt (RIGH-uhn GAHR-buht) is entering his second NHL season and his fourth overall in professional hockey. Over the course of his hockey career, Garbutt has made a habit of making the most of the opportunities he has been given. At 27-years-of-age, he has already played for five professional organizations. At each stop, he has excelled, often working his way from the bottom of the line-up to the top. He was runner-up as the CHL's Rookie of the Year in 2010 and was named to the CHL All-Rookie Team that year. He was also the MVP of the MJHL and was selected to the ECAC All-Academic Team twice. He is often credited with having an extraordinary work ethic, and plays a style that is "hard to play against." Garbutt is a graduate of Brown University and holds a degree in economics/sociology.



Garbutt went undrafted and was acquired by Dallas as a free agent

ABOUT JAROMIR

Jaromir Jagr is one of the most prolific scorers in NHL history, placing first all-time in overtime goals (16), second in game-winning goals (114), eighth in points (1,653), 11th in goals (665) and 12th in assists (988). Among active NHL players, Jagr is first in points, goals, assists, plus/minus (+280) and game-winning goals (114), and second in games played (1346) and power play goals (189). In his 18-year NHL career with Pittsburgh, Washington, New York Rangers and Philadelphia, Jagr has never earned a sub-50 point campaign and has the most 50-plus-point seasons in that time span. Jagr recorded 15 consecutive 70-or-more point NHL seasons from 1992-2008, an NHL record. A two-time Stanley Cup champion with Pittsburgh (1991 and 1992), Jagr ranks first among active players in Stanley Cup Playoff goals (78), assists (111), points (189), power play goals (24) and game-winning goals (16).

ABOUT PHILIP

Philip Larsen (FILL-uhp, Lahr-sen) is entering his second full season with the Stars, and his fourth overall with the club. Larsen's plus-11 rating last season was tied for the lead among Dallas defensemen. In 2011-12, the Denmark native scored his first career NHL goal, becoming the first Danish-born blue liner to accomplish that feat since Vancouver's Poul Poupiel in 1971-72. Of players that have skated with the Dallas Stars in each of the last three seasons, he is one of only four skaters who has earned a cumulative plus-10 rating or better (+13). Larsen competed in the 2012 IIHF World Championship where he earned two assists in seven games for Denmark. He also posted a team-leading 23 shots in the tournament, and had the highest time-on-ice per game of anyone on Denmark's National Team (25:05).

ABOUT KARI

Kari Lehtonen (KAH-ree LEH-tuh-nehn) is entering his ninth NHL season and his fourth with the Dallas Stars. In his time with Dallas, Lehtonen has set career-highs in games played (69), wins (34), save percentage (.922), goals-against-average (2.33) and minutes played (4,119). He owns two of the top three franchise records for most saves in a single season (2010-11 & 2011-12), has the franchise record for most assists in a single season by a goaltender (6 in 2010-11) and this past season, represented Finland at the World Championships. Lehtonen is the highest-drafted European goaltender and the highest Finnish player ever selected in NHL history. He enters 2012-13 three wins shy of tying Andy Moog for the seventh spot on the all-time franchise wins list (75).

ABOUT TOBY

Toby Petersen (TOH-bee PEE-tuhr-suhn) is entering his sixth season with the Dallas Stars organization and his 14th overall in professional hockey. Petersen begins the 2012-13 campaign with almost 400 games of NHL experience with the Pittsburgh Penguins, Edmonton Oilers and Dallas Stars. He's posted 81 points (33 goals, 48 assists) and 50 penalty minutes in that span and added a goal and two penalty minutes in 18 career NHL playoff games. Last season, Petersen earned 5 points (2 goals, 3 assists) in 39 games and was voted as one of the top-20 nicest players in the NHL in a Sports Illustrated player's poll. Of players drafted in in the eighth round or later of the 1998 Draft, only Karlis Skrastins and Michael Ryder played more games and earned more points than Petersen.

ABOUT MICHAEL

Michael Ryder (MY-kuhl RY-duhr) is entering his ninth season in the NHL and his second as a Dallas Star. Before joing the Stars, Ryder spent time with the Montreal Canadiens and was a member of the 2011 Stanley Cup Champion Boston Bruins. Since joining the NHL in 2003-04, Ryder has earned over 30 points in each of his eight seasons, eclipsing the 50-point mark in five of the seasons -- including a 63-point campaign his rookie year and a 62-point campaign with the Stars last season. During his rookie season, Ryder led all NHL rookies in goals, assists and points (25-38-63), and finished second to Andrew Raycroft in Calder Trophy voting as the league's top rookie. Entering the 2012-13 season, Ryder is three points shy of his 200th NHL goal, one point shy of his 200th NHL assist and four points shy of his 400th career NHL point.

TEXAS STARS

The Texas Stars are playing their fourth season as the Dallas Stars' primary development affiliate in the American Hockey League (AHL). Based in Cedar Park, Texas, located just north of Austin, the Stars have already had a highly successful history just three years into their existence. They reached the 2010 Calder Cup Finals in their inaugural season and returned to the playoffs again in year two. Although the team missed out on postseason action following the 2011-12 campaign, fans have embraced the club and shown up in droves. Last season, they enjoyed their best average attendance yet (5,470) and in three years, over 630,000 fans have seen Stars AHL hockey at Cedar Park Center.

Big moves were made throughout the organization over the offseason, starting with a new coaching staff in Cedar Park. Dallas started by naming their associate head coach Willie Desjardins as the Texas Stars' new head coach. Desjardins brings a winning pedigree from his NHL experience with Dallas and from his days behind the bench of the WHL's Medicine Hat Tigers, a perennial playoff contender and two-time WHL champion (2004 & 2007). The fact that Desjardins worked side-by-side with Dallas head coach Glen Gulutzan during the 2011-12 season should be very beneficial by promoting greater continuity of hockey systems between both clubs. Joining Desjardins behind the Texas bench as assistant coach is Doug Lidster, who won two Stanley Cups during his 16-year NHL career, with Dallas in 1999 and the New York Rangers in 1994. Lidster was an assistant coach for the Canadian Women's National Team when they won the gold medal at the 2010 Winter Olympics in Vancouver.

The Texas Stars play all of their home games at the state-of-the-art Cedar Park Center, which holds 6,863 seats for hockey, 7,200 for NBA D-League and up to 8,700 for concerts and other events. The arena has 24 suites (including four party suites) and 545 club seats with a private club lounge. In its first three years, Cedar Park Center hosted world class events and performers such as, George Strait, Rascal Flatts, Alan Jackson, Tool, Jason Aldean, Def Leppard, Eric Church, Cirque' du Soleil and the Disney On Ice. The arena has hosted approximately 400 events over the first three years of operation.

Cedar Park Center is just the centerpiece of a larger vision by Hicks Cedar Park LLC to bring a pedestrian friendly entertainment destination to the greater Austin area. A retail site of 17 acres is adjacent to the facility grounds for mixed-use development that includes 91,000 square feet for retail and 91,000 square feet for commercial.

"The Texas Stars are proud to be the top development affiliate of the Dallas Stars," said Texas Stars President Rick McLaughlin. "The Texas Stars are an extension of the Dallas Stars organization with an emphasis on player development. The long-standing partnership allows hockey fans in Central Texas to see the future Stars before they go on to play in the NHL for Dallas. Once players do get to the NHL, our fans can continue to track their careers in Central Texas, which is included in the Dallas Stars TV market."

Scott White
General Manager

Scott White was hired as the first General Manager of the Texas Stars Hockey Club of the AHL on November 19, 2008. White was instrumental in building the Texas Stars 2009-10 inaugural season team, which made a run to the 2010 Calder Cup Finals.

White has been with the Dallas Stars organization since 2005, most recently serving as a professional scout and director of minor league operations. He headed up the hockey department for the Iowa Stars, Dallas' then-primary affiliate, for three seasons, and prior to joining the Stars organization, served as head coach of the Columbia Inferno of the ECHL for four seasons. In Columbia, he was responsible for all the club's hockey operation activities, including recruiting, scouting, trades and roster moves. White worked as an assistant coach with the Greensboro Monarchs (ECHL) for a season and a half, and was an assistant coach at his alma mater, Michigan Tech University, from 1994-1995.

White played five years of professional hockey from 1989-1994, including three seasons with Greensboro, where he won the 1990 ECHL Championship and earned ECHL Defenseman of the Year and First-Team All-ECHL honors for the 1991-92 season. He signed with the Ottawa Senators in 1992 and played the entire season with the club's developmental affiliate in New Haven, capturing team MVP honors after scoring 54 points (10 goals, 44 assists) in 80 games. The Quebec native finished his professional career with 235 points (55 goals, 180 assists) in 190 regular season games and 40 points (8 goals, 32 assists) in 41 playoff games.

Willie Desjardins
Head Coach

Willie Desjardins was named the third head coach in Texas Stars history on June 13, 2012.

Desjardins, 55, spent the last two seasons as the Stars' associate head coach, during which the club went 84-64-16. Previous to his stint in Dallas, Desjardins spent the eight seasons as head coach of the Medicine Hat Tigers (WHL) and also served as general manager of the club from 2005-2010. He won the WHL Championship with Medicine Hat in 2004 and 2007. Desjardins coached the Tigers at the Memorial Cup Tournament in those two seasons and was runner-up at the 2007 Tournament.

During his time with the Medicine Hat Tigers, Desjardins posted a collective 333-182-61 regular season record and a 65-43 record in the playoffs, and each of his teams have qualified for the playoffs when he has started the season with the club.

The native of Climax, Saskatoon, won a gold medal as an assistant coach for Team Canada at the 2009 World Junior Championships. Desjardins was named head coach of the Canadian national team in the 2010 World Junior Championships and earned a silver medal. He also served as assistant coach for the Canadian national men's team in 1998-99 during the 1999 IIHF World Championship. Desjardins was head coach of the WHL's Saskatoon Blades during the 1997-98 season, after working as bench boss for the Seibu Bears in Japan from 1994-96. Previously, he served as head coach at the University of Calgary from 1989-1994, leading the Dinosaurs to two Canada West University Athletic Association (CWUAA) championships. He was an assistant coach at the university from 1985-89. Desjardins has won National Championships in Asia, Europe and North America.

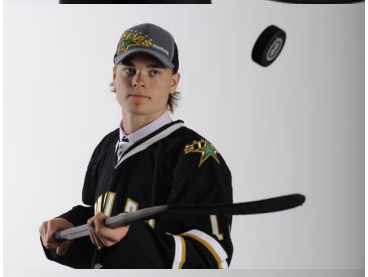
Radek Faksa
First-Round Selection (13th Overall)

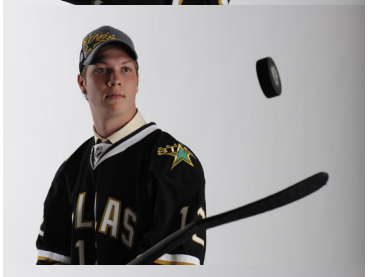
Faska spent the 2011-12 season with the Kitchener Rangers of the Ontario Hockey League, where he led all OHL rookies in goals (29), assists (37), points (66), game-winning goals (6) and plus/minus (+19). He was selected 22nd overall in the 2011 OHL Import Draft by Kitchener. The 6-3, 202-pound center represented the Czech Republic at the 2012 World Junior Championship, recording two goals in six games to help the Czech Republic finish in fifth place. He also played for the Czech Republic at the 2011 Under-18 World Championships and the 2011 Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament. During the 2011-12 season, Faksa skated in 24 games for HC Trinec's junior team, collecting nine goals and six assists for 15 points. He also appeared in 28 games for HC Trinec's under-18 club, earning 49 points (19 goals, 30 assists). Ranked as the No. 7 North American skater by Central Scouting, Faksa lived in a hotel for five years while playing for Trinec, which is roughly 50 miles southeast of his hometown. His mother is a former figure skater, and taught him to skate at the age of three. His older brother, Martin, was a defenseman, and his uncle, Stanislav Pavelec, played in Czech pro leagues for seven years.

Ludwig Bystrom
Second-Round Selection (43rd Overall)



With the No. 43 selection, Dallas picked Ludvig Bystrom, a 6-foot, 208-pound defenseman from MODO Hockey in the Swedish Junior League. The native of Ornskoldsvik, Sweden, played at three different levels for the club in 2011-12 – posting an assist and eight penalty minutes in 20 Elite League games; earning 29 points (7 goals, 22 assists) and 101 PIM in 34 games at the junior level; and scoring a goal in one appearance at the Under-18 level. He added four points (1 goal, 3 assists) in eight junior league playoff games.
Bystrom was part of the Swedish team that won the silver medal at the 2012 Under-18 World Junior Championships, where he earned an assist in six games. He was ranked as the No. 8 European Skater by NHL Central Scouting.

Mike Winther
Second-Round Selection (54th Overall)

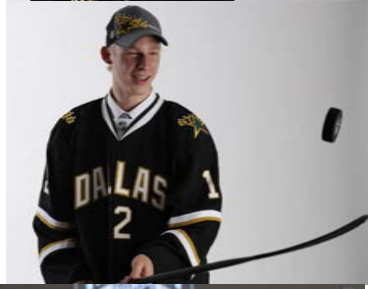


The Stars selected Mike Winther of the Prince Albert Raiders with the No. 54 overall pick. A 6-foot, 172-pound center, Winther posted 32 goals and 24 assists for 56 points in 71 games for the club. He led the team with 16 power play goals and ranked second in total goals and short-handed tallies (4). Winther, born Jan. 9, 1994 in Trochu, Alberta, was recognized as the WHL Player of the Week in December for posting an impressive 10 goals and 5 assists for 15 points in six games. He collected a goal and an assist for Team Canada at the 2012 World Under-18 Championships.

Devin Shore
Second-Round Selection (61st Overall)

Dallas selected another center, Devin Shore, with the No. 61 overall pick. Shore played for the Whitby Fury of the Ontario Junior Hockey League in 2011-12, where he served as an assistant captain. With Whitby, he posted 29 goals and 29 assists for 58 points in 41 games for the club. He is committed to the University of Maine for the 2012-13 season. Born July 19, 1994 in Ajax, Ontario, Shore played for Canada East in the U-19 World Junior 'A' Challenge, where he led the team in scoring with 2 goals and 4 assists in six games.

Esa Lindell
Third-Round Selection (74th Overall)



Finnish defenseman Esa Lindell was selected by Dallas with the No. 74 overall pick. Lindell scored 21 goals with 30 assists and had a plus-24 rating in 48 games for Jokerit of the Finnish Under-20 league. The Vantaa, Finland native led all defensemen in the Finnish Under-20 league in goals (21), assists (30) and points (51) in 2011-12, and earned several league accolades. He was honored as the league's best regular season player, earned a spot on the All-Star Team and was October's "Player of the Month." The 6-2, 192-pound blue liner also skated for Team Finland at the 2012 World Under-18 Championships.

Gemel Smith
Fourth-Round Selection (104th Overall)

The Stars selected center Gemel Smith in the fourth round, No. 104 overall. A 5-10, 160-pound native of Toronto, Smith spent the 2011-12 season with Owen Sound of the Ontario Hockey League. In 68 games with the Attack, Smith collected 21 goals and 39 assists for 60 points, good for second on the club in assists, third in points and fourth in goals. He added a goal and two assists in 5 OHL playoff games last season.

In 2010-11, Smith appeared in 21 playoff games as Owen Sound won the OHL Playoffs and advanced to the Memorial Cup tournament. He won a bronze medal with Team Canada at the 2012 World Under-18 Championships, and skated for his home nation at the 2011 Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament. He was ranked as the No. 37 North American skater by NHL Central Scouting.

Branden Troock
Fifth-Round Selection (134th Overall)

With the No. 134 pick overall (fifth round), Dallas took right wing Branden Troock of the Seattle Thunderbirds. A 6-2, 174-pound native of Edmonton, Troock scored 14 goals with 12 assists for 26 points in 2011-12, which placed him fourth in goals and fifth in points on the team, which was coached by former NHL player Steve Konowalchuk.

Troock won a bronze medal with Team Canada at the 2012 World Under-18 Championships in the Czech Republic and participated in the 2012 CHL Top Prospects Game. He ended the season slotted as the No. 65 North American skater by NHL Central Scouting.

Henri Kiviaho
Fifth-Round Selection (144th Overall)

Goaltender Henri Kiviaho was the Stars' second fifth-round pick at No. 144 overall after a standout season with Kalpa in the Finnish junior league. He posted a 2.78 goals-against-average and a .909 save percentage in 28 games in 2011-12, with two shutouts. He was named the SM-liiga's Young Player of the Month in November, 2012.

A native of Lappeenranta, Finland, Kiviaho has good size at 6-3, 183 pounds and has represented Finland in various under-16 and under-17 tournaments the last two seasons.

Dmitry Sinitsyn
Seventh-Round Selection (183rd Overall)

Dallas' final selection of the day, No. 183 overall in the seventh round, was defenseman Dmitry Sinitsyn, a 6-2, 200 pound native of Moscow who spent the 2011-12 season with the University of Massachusetts-Lowell. Sinitsyn has stronger Dallas ties than the remainder of the Stars 2012 picks, as he was a member of the Dallas Stars Elite Under-16 clubs from 2009-11, earning 83 points (35 goals, 48 assists) in 93 games in those two seasons.

Sinitsyn joined UMass-Lowell midway through the 2011-12 season, despite being just 17 years old. The Russian defenseman ultimately redshirted, but is expected to contribute heavily for the RiverHawks next season.

Of the 211 total players selected in the 2012 NHL Draft, 12 countries were represented, led by Canada (99), the United States (56) and Sweden (22). Also represented were Russia (11), Finland (9), Czech Republic (6), Denmark and Latvia (2 each), and Belarus, Germany, Switzerland and United Kingdom (1 apiece).

On October 14, 1995, the Stars set a franchise record for the fastest three goals in a game, scoring three times in 44 seconds of the final minute of the third period to cap an exciting 6-5 comeback victory over Boston at Reunion Arena. Trailing 5-3, Kevin Hatcher banged home a rebound at 19:11 of the third period to pull the Stars within one goal. At the 19:44 mark, Mike Modano fired a wrist shot past Bruins' goalie Craig Billington to even the score at 5-5. On the ensuing faceoff, Mike Kennedy hustled to the corner to Billington's left, dug the puck loose and sent a centering pass to Guy Carbonneau, who fired the puck past Billington at 19:55 for the win. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, it is the only game in NHL history that a team trailed by two goals in the final minute of the game and came back to score three goals and win the game in regulation.

#7 Neal Broten

Neal Broten finished his NHL career as the most decorated player ever born in the United States. As early as high school he was a champion, taking Roseau High School to three Minnesota State High School Hockey Tournaments. He would go on to lead the University of Minnesota to the 1979 NCAA Championship and was awarded the first-ever Hobey Baker Award as the nation's top collegiate hockey player in 1981. Broten entered history in 1980 as he helped the "Miracle on Ice" U.S. Olympic team win the gold medal. He was the last member of that squad to play in the NHL. Broten, fittingly, scored his first career NHL goal in his first career NHL game with the Minnesota North Stars on March 31, 1981 vs. St. Louis. In his first full season, 1981-82, he was named the franchise's Rookie of the Year after setting team records that still stand for most goals, assists and points by a rookie (38-60-98).

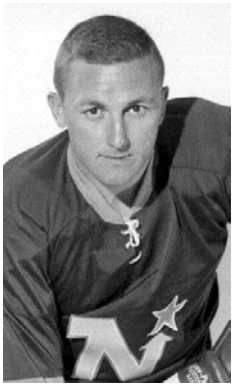
Sixteen seasons later, Broten retired as the club's all-time leader in games played (992), assists (593) and points (867) and is fourth in team annals in goals (274). The team's Most Valuable Player in 1984 and 1986, Broten participated in the NHL All-Star Game in 1983 and 1986. In that 1985-86 campaign, he became the first American-born player to record 100 points (105) and set the current club mark for assists in a season with 76.

Moving with the team to Texas in 1993, Broten scored the first-ever goal in Dallas Stars history on October 5, 1993 against Detroit. He was dealt by the Stars to New Jersey in February of 1995, where he achieved his remaining goal. Having been to the Stanley Cup Finals twice before with the Stars (1981,1991), he played an instrumental role in the Devils' Stanley Cup victory in 1995, finishing second on that championship club with 19 points (7-12-19) in 20 playoff contests. Broten began the 1996-97 season with New Jersey, and had a brief stint with Los Angeles before the Stars reacquired him off waivers on January 28, 1997. Finishing the season with Dallas, Broten totaled 923 points for his career, the second-highest point total ever for an American-born player behind only Joe Mullen (1,063).

In June of 1996, Broten was honored with USA Hockey's Distinguished Achievement Award and in April of 1997 he was named to the All-Time USA Hockey First Team. In addition, he was selected as USA Hockey's Player of the Decade for 1976-77 to 1985-86 and in the Summer of 1997 was named a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award for outstanding service to hockey in the United States, one of only two players (Ken Morrow) to win the Award twice, having won it the first time as a member of the 1980 gold medal USA team. Broten's number seven was retired by the Stars on February 7, 1998 and he was inducted into the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame in 2000.

#8 Bill Goldsworthy

Bill Goldsworthy started his career as a North Star in 1967 when Minnesota selected him from Boston in the 1967 expansion draft. He made his name with the North Stars through goal-scoring and the invention of the Goldy Shuffle. Goldsworthy set marks throughout his career, becoming the first player from a post-1967 team to score 200 goals and the first to score 250. In 1971, Goldsworthy became the team's leading scorer and goal scorer, a mark he held for over a decade. His 48-goal season in 1973-74 was the best ever by a North Star until 1981-82 and he averaged over 30 goals a year during his Stars career. In 1976, Goldsworthy became the first North Star ever to reach the 500-point plateau. In 670 games with Minnesota, he totalled 267 goals and 239 assists for 506 points. Goldsworthy's number eight was retired on February 15, 1992.



#19 Bill Masterton

Bill Masterton was a member of the Minnesota North Stars inaugural NHL team in 1967-68. He played two seasons of professional hockey for Hull-Ottawa of the EPHL in 1961-62 and Cleveland of the American Hockey League in 1962-63. The North Stars retired Masterton's jersey number in memory of the only professional hockey player to lose his life because of an injury suffered during an NHL game. Masterton hit the back of his head on the ice on January 13, 1968 against Oakland, and passed away two days later. The North Stars named the Bill Masterton Memorial Cup Award in his memory, presenting it to the North Stars player voted most valuable by his teammates during the season. Masterton's number 19 has never been worn by another Dallas or North Star and was retired on January 17, 1987.
